Exhibitor Testimonials

This year, the buyer's quality and quantity are very excellent, and the VIP buyers invited by the organizer are also very accurate and professional. During these three days, many new and existing customers from all over the country visited our booth for discussions. Through this exhibition platform, our products were able to reach more target customers, providing great impetus for us to expand the national market. We appreciate the efficient networking and communication platform provided by the exhibition. See you again next year!

—Pichong Deng, Business Manager, Foshan Yixian Intelligent Machinery Equipment Co., Ltd.

We have been organizing our corporate members to participate in the exhibition for several consecutive years. The buyers invited by the organizer are very professional, and we have the opportunity to connect with numerous large-scale manufacturers. Each year, we have gained a lot from the exhibition. We hope that all member units will fully support the Guangzhou Food Machinery Expo.

—Mr. Xiong, Guangdong Food and Packaging Machinery Industry Association

"This is the 8th consecutive year we have participated in this exhibition. Every year, we have the opportunity to connect with various medium and large-scale food processing enterprises. The quality of the buyers was excellent, and we look forward to participating again next year."

—Manager Li, Guanghua Packaging

"This is the 6th consecutive year we have participated in this exhibition. Every year, we have the opportunity to connect with a large number of overseas buyers, such as those from African countries, Malaysia, Southeast Asian countries, and others."

—Mei Wang, General Manager (Guangzhou Branch) of Zhucheng Jinding Food Machinery Co., Ltd.

Concurrent Activities

The 3rd Greater Bay Area Intelligent Packaging Industry Development Conference

In order to promote the digital transformation and upgrading of the industry in a complex environment, further facilitate the integration of food industry and packaging machinery industry, and conduct concentrated and efficient industry exchanges, the 3rd Greater Bay Area Intelligent Packaging Industry Development Conference will be held on June 14, 2024, at Guangzhou Import and Export Fair Complex. The conference aims to promote the healthy development of the food and packaging machinery industry, focus on the new trends in the industry, and explore the implementation experience of digital upgrading in the food and packaging machinery industry, providing a platform for communication, learning, and growth for the industry.

Food and Packaging Machinery Industry Equipment Manufacturers and Users Matchmaking and Exchange Meeting

In order to facilitate better resource integration between equipment manufacturers and users, the 32nd Guangzhou International Food Processing and Packaging Machinery and Equipment Exhibition will concurrently host an offline business matching event. This event aims to create a convenient space for business exchanges between buyers and exhibitors, enabling more efficient results within the limited exhibition period.
