The International Grain and Oil Exhibition (IGO China) brings together three key shows: the IOE Edible Oil Expo, IRE Rice & Grains Expo, and IGME Grain & Oil Machinery Expo. IGO aims to accelerate worldwide grain and oil circulation, innovate the grain and oil industry connection model, and build an efficient business chain for the entire industry. With a professional, branded, and international development direction, IGO is an ideal platform for overseas enterprises and premium products to enter the Chinese market.

Why exhibit?

Leading domestic and international brands and products will be showcased in a concentrated manner, creating an efficient business cooperation and matchmaking chain. The exhibition facilitates effective communication and collaboration across the grain and oil industry value chain, helping enterprises expand into new markets with greater efficiency.

Leveraging the food-sector buyer resources of IHE China – Guangzhou International Health Industry Expo, the exhibition focuses on inviting key channel partners such as distributors, agents, franchisees, grain and oil wholesalers, and chain supermarkets to attend and make group purchases on site.

In collaboration with authoritative institutions and industry leaders, a series of forums and conferences will be held during the exhibition. Numerous experts will share insights on key topics, market trends, and the latest developments in the grain and oil industry, offering valuable opportunities for in-depth exchange and collaboration.
